

Make your voice heard

In 2013, the Council of Europe organized a comic design contest for K-12 and high-school students. The topic was "Democracy and Human Rights in Schools

The scripts were worked out in close collaboration with the staff of the Council of Europe. A balance between entertainment, humour and the values children had chosen to emphasize in their comics, which include diversity, participation, human dignity and democratic practice in schools.

Direction and production: Pampaneo

Access the video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yKFcOSiqGmw>